

Chain of Command Assignment

List the Chain of Command for your agency. Start with you first, and go all the way up to your chief or sheriff. Include each person's first and last name, rank, and position.

List the Chain of Command for your academy class. Start with you at the bottom, and go all the way to the Governor of Washington State. Include each person's first and last name, rank, agency, and position. Your list should still include the positions of squad leader, class vice president, and class president, even if those positions have not been filled yet.
