

Module 5 exam questions from the Gangs Class

When examining street gang behavior, the type of gang is an important factor. One of the most basic ways of characterizing gangs is by:

- A. Income level of members
- * B. Race of the majority of the members
- C. Type of vehicle driven by members
- D. Crips or Bloods

True or False: Gang graffiti is general nonsense and has no criminal intelligence value.

- A. True
- * B. False

True or False: Tattoos may be an important source of intelligence on gang members because they show a level of commitment.

- * A. True
- B. False

True or False: Gang membership may provide a member with love and emotional support, and may come to replace his family.

- * A. True
- B. False

True or False: Money is a primary motive for gang membership; so by attacking their moneymaking opportunities we can eliminate gangs.

- A. True
- * B. False